"74" I HOPE

Dana,

Here's to a real cool person that I think has a great personality.

I haven't known you for very long or for the person that you really are. I use to didn't really understand you. But now I do. I think that I have come to know the real Dana and I like you and think that your great. I'm glad that your a sensitive and loving warm person. Always be you cause you always make people feel good around you and I like you for the person you are.

Have fun in school and always make the most out of your life.

Dana, be happy and share your love and friendships with others.

There are good days and bad days. Make the good days happy and bright and enjoy them to there fullest and make the bad days as happy as possible and always keep your chin up and remember that a good day has to come if there is a bad day. I guess if there wasn't a bad day once in awhile life would get pretty dull.

Good-Luck now and always;

May God Bless & Keep you Always;

With Love
Your Friend
Joyce
(Mrs. Joyce Bunten)

(I'm not very good with words but I think you understand and know how I feel about you.)

Dana,
Hows it going stud? Here's wishing the best of luck to one of coolest chicks I know.

A pal,
Jerry

DEDICATED TO THE CLASS OF 1972

BY THE
CLASS OF 1973

The music fades, the stars grow dim
The night too soon departs
And though it dies, it leaves a mem'ry
Glowing in our hearts.
A glow that is the symbol of
The happy days we've known
Of countless friends and dreams come true, of four years that have flown
Of four short years that hurried by
And to them now we cling
As rather wistfully we reach
Our Prom — the final fling.

Speaker Royall: "LIFE IS TREMENDOUS"
"Fall in love with America and Stay in love with America. It's not korny to be Patriotic!"
"The Eagle is the emblem of America
--not the oyster!"

Hi Ding Dong!
I'm signing in the midst of all these grim faces to tell you "Hi!"
I just had to sign this again! The first time, I didn't know you.
So.... I said to myself, "Obi, (That's me) now that you knows what a duper-cool-nifty-neato-spiffy person Dana (That's you) is, sign her annual again." And tell her what a duper-cool-niftyneato-spiffy person she is!" So I did! Hello again! How can you be so patient? Someone else would have jumped all over my back.
It's about time I got around to finishing this. Dana, we've grown closer and closer each day.
I've never known someone like you. You're not "different" or "strange". You're Dana. And that's special. You can do more for someone who needs help and a friend than any other soul on this earth. You're just too too much. (I had to throw that one in) I'm so glad I've gotten to know you. Always Always Always stay close. Let's never get out of touch. I'd really lose something if we did. I hope we both can go to CSU (Greely? Never could tell) (know what I mean?) Then we could see each other sometimes? Don't let little girls with black tongues ever get you down. All they can do is talk. Did anyone who believes them wasn't a friend worth having. Make life something (And gain some weight, Skinny) Love you much, match & gobs Sue?

Highland Hilights

The "fun" of producing the school newspaper culminated in the assembling of the pages and distributing the copies to the classes and the schools in the district:

Nunn Grades-100-copies

Pierce Middle-350-copies

Ault Grades-350-copies

High School-280-copies

However, gathering the news, typing the "dummy," typing the stencils, drawing the pictures on the stencils, and running all the sheets on the duplicator were the jobs that took patience and "push."

"Oh, yes, someone is absent. Who will fill in and get the job done?" This is what it took--complete, unselfish cooperation to attain the deadline.

It all started as a project in the Business Principles class: Ken Barnaby, Sharon Dinges, Anita Gallegos, David Johnson, Sandy Lebsack, Janet McNeece, Karen Rasmussen, Vicki White, Felipa Hernandez, Ed Sweazy, and Patty Marchan.

The following period more emergencies arose and the following students had additional experience in duplicating problems: Laura Batman, Terry Knight, Janet McNeece, Karen Rasmussen, Cristal Taylor.

Middle School is Organized

Middle school was organized and in operation for the school year 1971-72. Principal Zack feels that this age group is very active and most energetic and needs new opportunities for learning and expression.

Classes have been reorganized and more subjects are being offered for growth and development of the individual pupil.

With grades five through eight being on one campus, the facilities provide more time and better organization for special classes such as music and art.

In these classes the teachers are not being transferred to the various schools when preparing the fifth and sixth graders for the group formerly called junior high.

A new facility has been added which as the art department in the east section, the music department in the middle, and the multi-purpose room at the west end. The classrooms are equipped especially for art with locked store rooms, and a sink; the music room with an office and small-group practice rooms.

The covered walk-overs indicate the special entrances between the old junior high building and the new building located to the south.

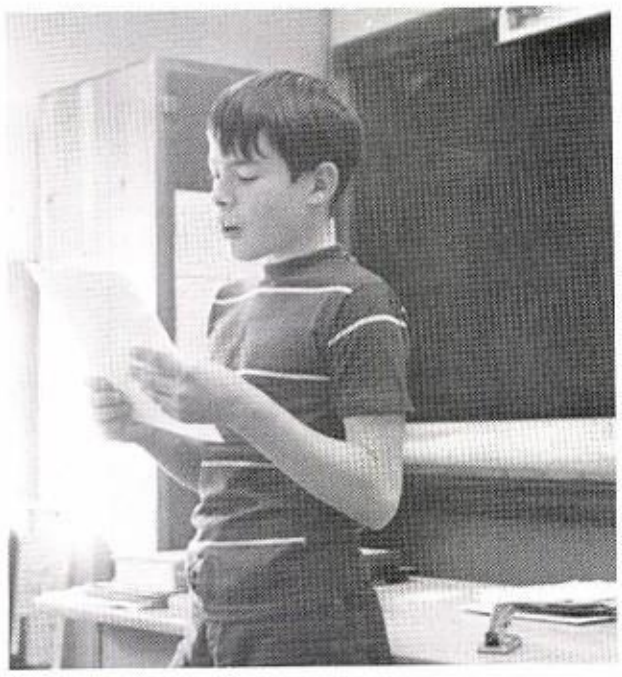
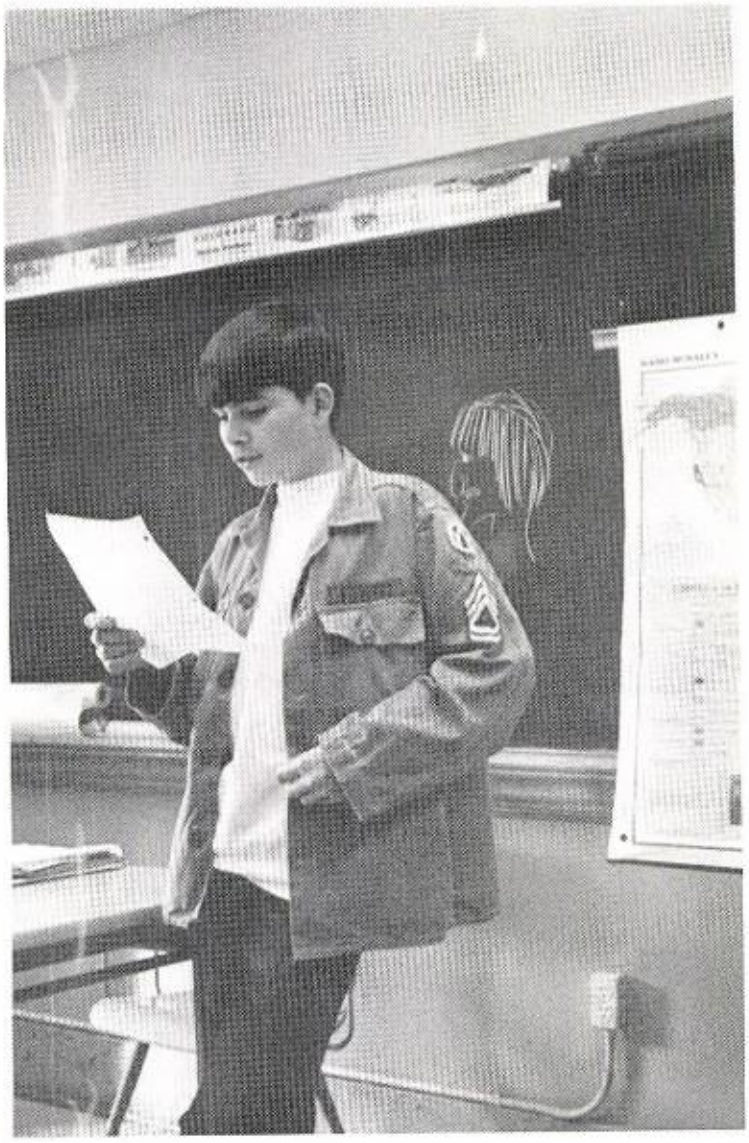
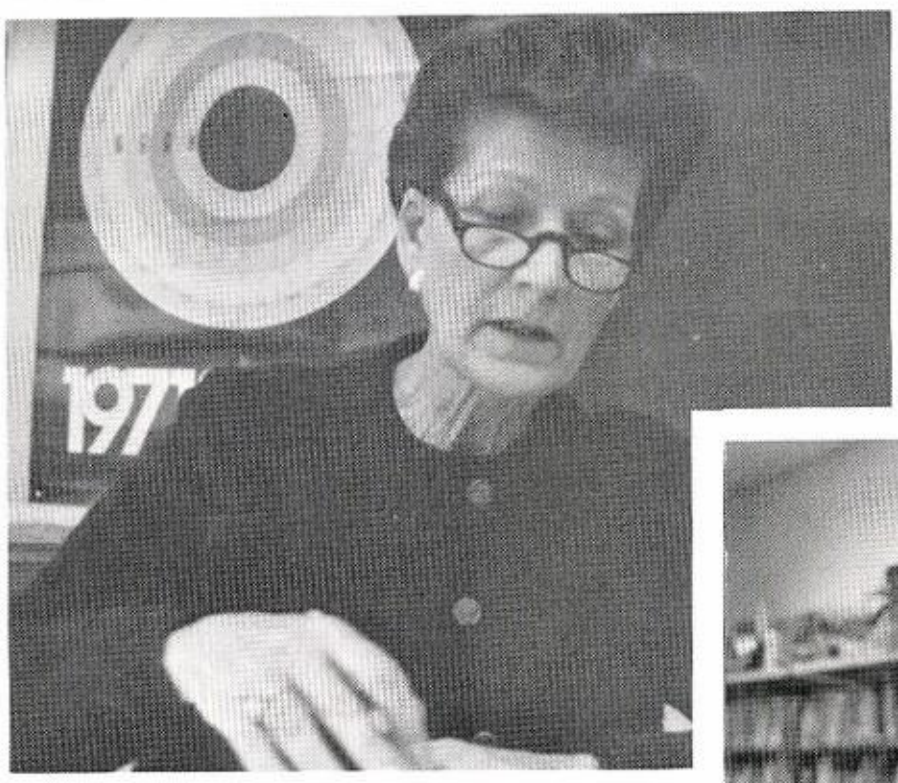
Classroom Activities





Students enjoy giving reports. Mr. Anderson is helping the class to realize the abuses of drugs.



Now class, let's hit the target with language arts. We have every opportunity in our community.

What! You can't get your feet out? Sorry, get a book!

Students practice in small rooms while the teacher finishes up some last-minute plans in her office. Pupils enjoy music of many countries in their new music room.

As reading coordinator, Mrs. Evelyn Babcock has had responsibilities centered around the following: (1) Coordinating and improving the reading program in Kindergarten through grade 4 in Ault and Nunn. (2) To a small extent she has been advising teachers in the 5th and 6th grades with reading, and suggesting materials for high school reading improvement. (3) She has supervised the reading aides. (4) Some tutoring has been done with special handicapped readers. (5) She has conducted beginning testing programs and written plans and objectives related to the Accountability Program in reading.

The speech correction program is designed to serve all public school children who exhibit difficulties in communication. The basic types of speech disorders include voice, stuttering, hard of hearing, articulation, language, and cleft palate.

Students are seen in small groups or individually for short periods of time at least twice a week. The two correctionists in the Re-9 district work for the BOCES and serve Ault Elementary, Highland High, Pierce Middle School, and Nunn Elementary.

Miss Eugenia Carillo serves half time in Ault Elementary, Pierce, and Nunn. Mrs. Janice Elsberry serves the Re-2 district (Eaton) and Ault Elementary and Highland High schools.

The Weld Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES), with its seven member school districts, was founded in 1967. The cooperative covers more than 2,000 square miles surrounding Greeley. BOCES has enabled the schools to expand their programs. Mrs. Watkins works with the pre-vocational students pictured to the left which meets in the Ault Elementary building. An excellent facility has provided for extensive training that could be provided in no other way.

Mrs. Baiamonte works in Nunn with the Educable Mentally Handicapped and the progress of the pupils is gratifying.

Mr. Boyle, Psychologist, is of great help in directing the teachers and workers in many areas of the program with BOCES.

The Preciado girls are high school juniors and attended school at Kersey. They enjoy the work-study program there.

The snapshots were taken when the students served a spaghetti supper in the fall. They are very enthusiastic workers under the leadership of Mrs. Watkins.

Dana,

Here is to a really great friend. It has been loads of fun going to school with you these past years. And just think we still have two years to go. Think of the fun we can have in that time. Do you think Highland High can stand us for two more years? I hope it doesn't fall in on us!

Dana, you have everything it takes to make it in life. You have a great personality and looks to match so use them wisely. Best of luck and God bless you forever!!

P.S. As I am your assistant band director I expect you to be a good boss and please do not get into trouble!! Okay?

Project S.T.A.Y.

Project STAY? No one except Jerry Lewis, its coordinator, seems to know what "S.T.A.Y." means, but a good number of HHS'ers know what the program's about. These people have found that the bright, bright basement room is a place where there's somebody to listen to a problem--from genetics to girls--or to assist with a class assignment. The tutors in Project STAY hope that these people will stay on in school; hopefully the extra help and attention that Project STAY provides will keep the student going!

Some of the students in Project STAY "disappear" after lunch --they are getting on-the-job training plus school credit at businesses like Stevens Chevrolet and auto shops in Greeley. The underclass students in the STAY program hope to be able to get similar jobs in their junior or senior years.

This has been the first year for the STAY program at HHS, but due to the cooperation of students and the entire faculty, the program will be going again next year, with many additions. The staff of the STAY program has really enjoyed working with the students and faculty of HHS and thanks them for their assistance! By the way, STAY means "School Training Alternatives for Youth"! STAY is operated through Weld BOCES and funded through the State Board for Community Colleges and Occupational Education.

Dana,
well, I guess I'll sign here simple because I can't find another empty page! I don't have any classes with you this year, but I sure wish I did. Because you sure could liven up some of my dull classes! So here's wishing you the best of luck this crazy, cruel world has to offer. Have fun in your last remaining years of school because they really go fast!! Well good luck in the future and do your least to behave yourself once in a while. I know that's alot to ask but at least try to have fun!!
Love
Deb
Class of '73

"SAVE"

Dana,

Wow! Where do I begin to tell the story...

Once upon a time there was a girl ~~or myself~~ named Dana Wingate in the 1971-1972 Biology 6th hour class. There was a Senior girl named Tracy Ellis also in this Biology class, but she was taking Anatomy as an individual study. Well, somehow, toward the end of that school year Dana and Tracy got to be friends. During school they were casual acquaintances really - not close friends. Well, during the summer of '72 Tracy & Dana got to be close friends. They went through a lot of experiences, but for some reason they are still friends.

Dana, I don't tell you how much I appreciate you. There are so many "bad" memories which we have gone through. I can't figure out why you still want to be around me. Well, I guess you proved that saying "A friend is one person who knows all about you and still likes you" to be true.

Remember all the good times we shared. How about that time we went to the wedding rehearsal and the rehearsal supper. Remember when we stopped at the light that had just turned red and Sandy pulled up beside us. I asked Pam if she wanted to race; she said NO and took off through the red light. Then she stopped on the other side of the light. I laughed halfway home! Remember the night we all stayed at Dan's? That's the night you and I cried. I have never cried so hard in my life!

Thanks so much, Dana, for understanding why I did what I did. You never condoned what you thought was wrong, but you always listened and tried to understand. You always gave me advice and even though I knew you were right and I couldn't do it, you always understood. There really aren't very many people that would understand. I really appreciate. Thanks for always being there when I needed you.

Remember when I read you "my" sayings & poems? Well, I thought I'd write them here so you would always have them.

"What the world needs is more open minds and less open mouths." - The Link

"Speak when you're angry and you will probably make the best speech you will ever regret." - Ciber

"Before you flare up at anyone's faults, take time to count ten - ten of your own."

Dana

You may as well know that you are one of my good and dear friends and don't let anyone tell you different! (Just incase) So we are Jrs! Big, neat ones at that! So you know what we have to do, We'll gonna have to get together and have one heck of a time this year (etc.) Aren't you looking forward to it huh! And with that neat, cool, tuff wowee personality we can really make it cool! I say cool because you can cause some pretty neat situations! (If ya know what I mean Joe!) So bee goot! Bye for now!

Dana, you're a very good, sensitive, loving person. Let people see that side of you more and people will naturally respond - and usually it is to love you in return. Remember that in everyone's life there has to be a little sorrow. If we didn't have sorrow, we'd be happy all the time, but we wouldn't know it because we wouldn't have anything to compare our happiness with. We'd just exist - not live! We'd be bored!

Truly, Dana, thanks for being yourself and accepting me for what I really am. Thanks for trying to understand & always being there to listen. THANKS. I love you!

May God bless you with peace, happiness, & love.

Love,

Dana,

You are really a far-out person with all those good qualities it takes to make it in this world. Remember the good times on all those band trips. Those were fun. There's going to be alot more good times too! Well, never give up in your endeavors through life. Hold your head up & keep smiling ☺!
Good luck & God bless.

"SAVE"

Dear Dana,

Say, girl! I do thank you for signing my annual. I appreciate it! You know that I'm not too much for words, but here goes. Thanks for being a good buddy and friend these my Highschool years. I've truly enjoyed it, even though sometimes I haven't been very pleasant. I do love you and don't you ever forget it, because if you do I'll have to come remind you! Take care of yourself and have fun this year at school, because you'll want to remember some good times! (But be good!) May God always watch over you and bless you! Thanks for your friendship and love!

love
Debbie

P.S. I mean every word even tho I didn't write much.

Dana, You funny girl! So I have Beautiful eyes, Huh? Well, Wrong!!!

I've only gotten to know you in the past year but I've enjoyed every minute of it! You've got a great sense-of-humor even though you don't laugh histerically all the time; I know I'll be seeing lots of you this year, so I can look forward to knowing you even better! See ya 'round you beautiful chic!

(Sorry this is so sloppy!)

Love you

Good luck! (And all that!)

I'm sorry for what I've said and done, I finally Got straightend out and I've been wanting To tell you, But you don't act to talkative. To a real cool, fun and good looking student director. Good luck in the future and don't do anything I wouldn't.
Jerry '73

Dana,
Heres to a real swell girl. That's a real pretty good. I had lots of fun in summer band and all the classes I had with you. Sorry I can write a whole page but I'm not to much for writing unless its talking. Be Good Dana and I'll always remember you like the sweet girl that you are
'74' Love
Linda

Dana, I've had a lot of fun with you. I hope to have many more good times and I hope good future with you in the Rod

Dear Dana,

How can I explain how I feel about you? I couldn't even start (mainly because I haven't finished my creative writing course) But I know if I had it still wouldn't describe the way I feel about the way our friendship effects me (it makes me kinda sound like I'm going to be sick) no not really but I'm sure you already know that. By the way you little snoock the next time we're playing kill the steak (AH) in P.E. I be the steak and you can be the person that falls down. Also don't let anyone see this page because my lines are uneven. Just put a paper sack over it + pretend it's not here.

How could any one believe that we are actually juniors? I still feel like a freshman (notice the small f in that word back there) except not so fresh AHH [and here's the BANANA Yada Yada] I imagine in 2 years we'll be out on our own, 12 years of our lives gone, that gives me WEIRD vibrations That so strange! Boy am I ever glad you moved here in 4th grade. I can't imagine what I'd do with out you in fact I'm not going to try either.

Hady, you can lie like a rug. You no better than that, trying to say that stuff in my annual. Oh Dana you better stop pulling my leg like that.

The people that signed your book know exactly what there talking. You read there + then my + I'll tell that's still not enough to describe the kindness understanding, listens anytime, friendly, sweet, + knows when you need someone

Dana if you know what's good for you, you better not change + if you don't know what's good for you ask me. Keep your personality, looks + figure.

I sorry I rook so long + also that this is so sloppy. I'll try keep in touch forever.

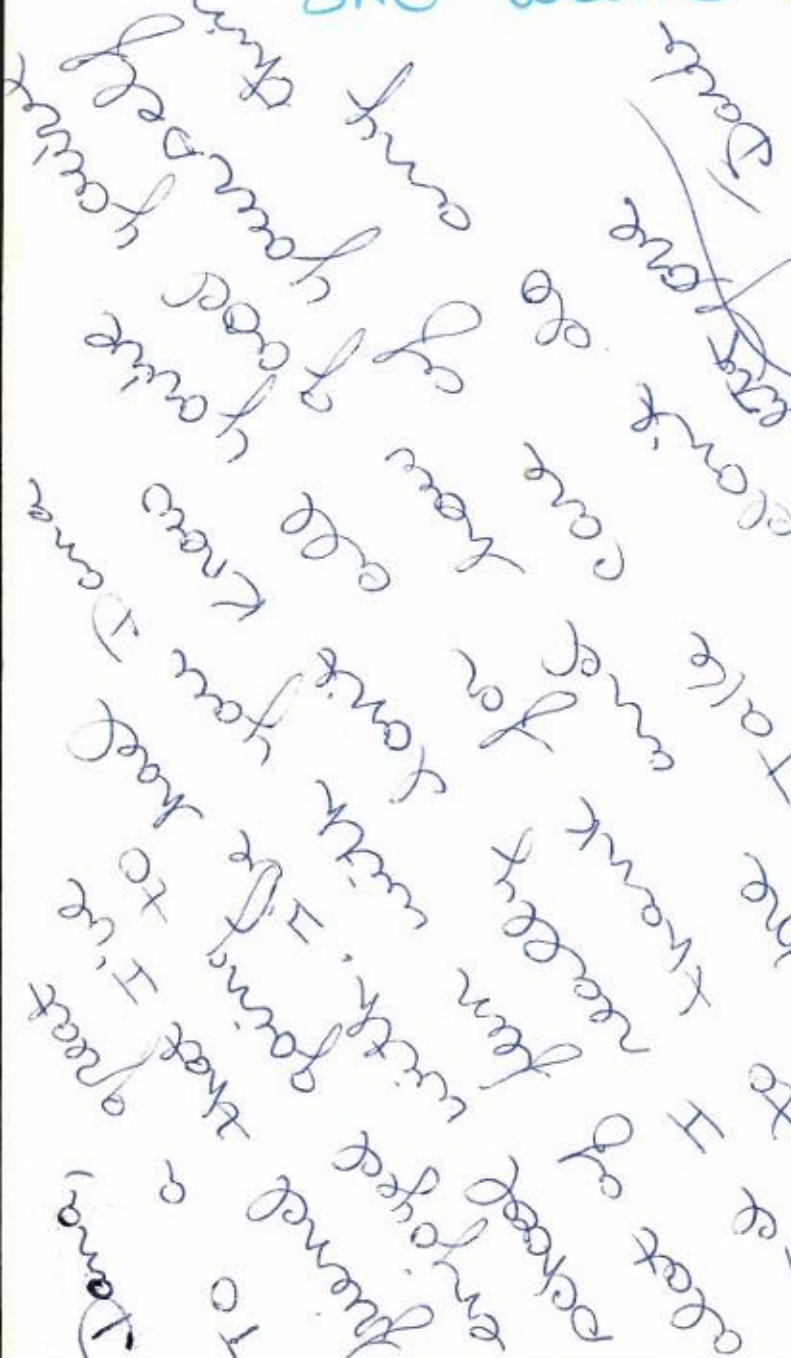
P.S. MY BANANA GOT CARRIED AWAY

Dana!

Hey Dude!! Well, Chic, it sure doesn't seem like I'm a Senior, Does it?

Remember all the good ol' times. (like giving Miss Doren a bad time, or plotting things against the gerbil woman!)

You're gonna have to come riding horses with A--nnie and I. Either that or we're gonna have to wait and watch till she wears her "yellow buckles!"



We gotta think of something else to gross out this depressing place. Maybe a-nother wrestling move!

Your one of the most sensational, fantabulous, magnifico, people around! (Yea! (clap clap) whistle,) Hey, I know !!!!!! Lets run a continuing series of grossing out prissy-pissy!!!

Come over to my house sometime so we can play Basketball!!

Yea! clapp·clap
